

Information Evening for Parents, Carers and Families of Children and Young People with Additional Needs

When?

7.00 - 9.00 pm
Wednesday
14th November 2018

What?

7.00 pm—Refreshments and an opportunity to speak to representatives from local groups
7.30 pm—Workshop on Speech, Language and Communication Needs (SLCN)
8.15 pm— Workshop on Autistic Spectrum Condition

Who?

If you are a parent or carer of a child or young person with additional needs and you would like to know more about how support for your child is being developed with DSPL7, this evening is for you.

Workshop 1

What are Language Difficulties?
What is Developmental Language Disorder?
Why be concerned?
What support is available?
How to support language development at home.
The session will be led by Pauline Hickey, Specialist Speech and Language Teacher, ISL HCC Implementation Lead for SLCN – County Wide

Workshop 2

What is the Autism Quality Offer?
What is Autism Education Trust Training?
How are schools developing their support for children with ASC?
The session will be led by Gemma Wishart, County Lead for Communication & Autism.

SEND Strategy

Shaping the Future of SEND in Hertfordshire

Where? St Albans Girls' School, Sandridgebury Lane, St Albans, AL3 6DB
Parking available in the visitors car park
Entrance via the main reception

We look forward to seeing you there

01727 853134 Ext 244    admin@dspl7.org.uk